Proceedings: (IN CHAMBERS) ORDER RE PLAINTIFF'S EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR ORDER FOR MODIFICATION OF SCHEDULING ORDER (DKT. 160)

PLAINTIFF'S EX PARTE APPLICATION TO EXTEND DISCOVERY CUT-OFF DATE TO 10/11/2016 (DKT. 171)

DEFENDANT'S EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR RECONSIDERATION OR REVIEW (DKT. 175)

As stated in a prior Order, three ex parte applications have been filed recently in this matter. All are related. Plaintiff filed two of them. Dkt. 160, 171. In each she seeks the extension of certain pretrial deadlines as well as the trial date due to the pendency of certain discovery disputes. Because those disputes were presented to, and decided by, Judge Eick (Dkt. 167) after the first ex parte application was made, Plaintiff filed the second one. The second ex parte application supersedes the first. Therefore, Plaintiff's first ex parte application (Dkt. 160) is MOOT.

In the second ex parte application Plaintiff seeks the aforementioned extensions because the Order issued by Judge Eick that requires Defendant to produce additional documents set July 11, 2016 as the deadline for their production. Defendant opposed both of the applications on the ground that there is no good cause to extend any of the current deadlines in part because Plaintiff has not shown sufficient diligence with respect to meeting them. Dkt. 163, 173.

The third ex parte application was filed by Defendant on June 21, 2016, and was supplemented on June 22, 2016. Dkt. 175, 176. That application seeks a reconsideration and review of Judge Eick's Order. It also seeks an extension until July 29, 2016, to complete the production of documents that are the subject of that Order, given the large volume of documents and the work required to gather, review and produce them. Defendant has agreed to produce the documents on a "rolling" basis, with a completion by the aforementioned date of July 29. Dkt. 175 at 31. Plaintiff opposed Defendant's ex parte application on the ground that Judge Eick thoroughly considered Defendant's arguments in opposition to her motion to compel, and properly limited the scope of the required production. Dkt. 178.
